

CLAIMS

1. New use of a combination of the substances pseudoephedrine sulphate and domperidone, CHARACTERISED in that it is suitable for the manufacture of a medicine used to alleviate or eliminate snoring in a moderate or severe non-pathological snorer.
5
2. New use of a combination of the substances pseudoephedrine sulphate and domperidone according to claim 1, CHARACTERISED in that the administration is through an orally administered capsule.
10
3. New use of a combination of the substances pseudoephedrine sulphate and domperidone according to claim 1, CHARACTERISED in that the combination of said substances is comprised of an average dose of 60 mg of pseudoephedrine and 10 mg of domperidone.
15
4. New use of a combination of the substances pseudoephedrine sulphate and domperidone according to claim 1, CHARACTERISED in that the consumption is of one daily capsule, 30 minutes after the evening meal.
20
5. New use of a combination of the substances pseudoephedrine sulphate and domperidone according to claim 1, CHARACTERISED in that optionally you can use a combination of said substance, which is comprised of a dose of 60 mg pseudoephedrine sulphate and 120 mg of pseudoephedrine hydrochloride.
25
6. Use of a combination of substances pseudoephedrine sulphate and domperidone according to claim 4, CHARACTERISED in that if after 4 hours of ingesting the capsule the person starts to snore again, he/she can take a second capsule.
30